FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WebWorks.com Releases Latest Version of Industry-Leading Content Conversion and Deployment Platform

WebWorks ePublisher 2009.1 Release Includes Innovative Documentation Feedback Capability and New Licensing Technology

AUSTIN, Texas — May 4, 2009 — WebWorks.com, a brand of Quadralay Corporation, the leading developer of content conversion and deployment solutions for single-source delivery of online content, today announced the SPRING 2009 release of its industry-leading ePublisher platform.

ePublisher 2009.1 represents a significant release for the company and introduces innovative feedback features using the latest in Web 2.0 technology and social network models to allow users to directly share their thoughts and experiences with ePublisher with the WebWorks team.

Also included in the new release is a totally new licensing technology designed to make life easier for the customer. The new technology streamlines and automates the licensing process, reducing the overhead of multiple-author key management. The new licensing technology is also designed to provide a basis for WebWorks to offer more flexible product offerings going forward, and to support the recently announced renewable licensing model.

To mark the release of the 2009.1 version of ePublisher, WebWorks is offering a special commemorative discount of 29.1% on standard licenses for new customers during May 2009.

The innovative and popular ePublisher Renewable License program continues to be offered at the price of $85/writer/ month.

Existing customers with active maintenance or subscription contracts will be automatically shipped a copy of ePublisher 2009.1 at no additional cost. Existing customers wishing to purchase additional seats or upgrade to ePublisher 2009.1 should contact their account manager for special promotional pricing.
